5 Reading – A present for Mum

Read the text. Then answer the questions below in complete sentences.

A present for Mum

It was Mum's birthday on Sunday, so last Saturday Lucy and her little brother Tom took the train to London. They wanted to find a really special present for her, and Lucy knew the perfect place: Camden Market. When they arrived, the market was full of people. Music was playing everywhere, and the air smelled of pizza, noodles and hot chocolate. Lucy loved it at once.

First they looked at jewellery. Lucy found a beautiful silver necklace, but it cost sixty pounds. "That's more expensive than all our pocket money together!" said Tom. Then they looked at T-shirts, bags and posters, but nothing was right. Some things were too big, and others were too boring.

After three hours, Tom was fed up. His feet hurt, he was hungry, and he didn't want to see one more shop. "Can we go home now?" he asked again and again.

Just then Lucy saw a small stall with colourful mugs. One of them said "The best mum in the world" in big golden letters, and it only cost eight pounds. "That's it!" Lucy shouted. Tom smiled for the first time that afternoon.

When they got home, they ran into the kitchen. Mum was sitting at the table and was drinking a cup of tea – from exactly the same mug! "Do you like it?" she asked. "I bought it at Camden Market last week!"

a) Where did Lucy and Tom go last Saturday?

b) Why did they go there?

c) Why was Tom fed up after three hours? Give two reasons.

7 Writing – My favourite sight in London

Write at least five sentences about your favourite sight in London. Say what it is, where it is, what you can see or do there and why you like it.

Beispiellösung (auch andere sinnvolle Sätze sind richtig):

My favourite sight in London is the Tower of London.

It is an old castle next to the River Thames, near Tower Bridge.

It is more than 900 years old, so it is older than most buildings in London.

You can see the King's Crown Jewels there.

The Beefeaters tell you exciting stories about the old castle.

There are big black ravens in the Tower, too.

I like it because it is one of the most interesting places in London.
