Reading: A Saturday at Brook Farm

Read Ollie's text. Then do tasks 1 to 3.

- 1 Hi, I'm Ollie Grant. I'm eleven years old and I live in Fenwick, a small town near the sea. I've got a sister, Maya, and a very lazy cat called Pudding.
- 2 Every Saturday morning, Maya and I help at Brook Farm. It's a small farm for children just outside the town. We usually go there by bike because it's only ten minutes from our house.
- 3 Last Saturday was special. When we arrived, Mrs Hollis, the farmer, was very excited. "Come and look!" she said. In the barn, a goat had two babies in the night. They were tiny and white with brown ears. Maya wanted to call them Salt and Pepper, and Mrs Hollis liked the names.
- 4 After that, we did our normal jobs. I fed the chickens and collected the eggs – there were fourteen! Maya cleaned the rabbit hutches. That's her least favourite job because it smells terrible. At twelve o'clock we had lunch in the farm kitchen: cheese sandwiches and apple juice.
- 5 In the afternoon, a school class visited the farm. Mrs Hollis was busy, so I showed the children the pigs. One little boy was afraid of them, but in the end he gave the biggest pig a carrot.
- 6 At four o'clock we rode home. I was tired but happy. Next Saturday I want to take photos of Salt and Pepper for our school newspaper. I can't wait!
