Reading: A day at Hawksmoor Castle Read Noah's report. Do tasks 1 to 3.

- 1 Last Friday my class went on a trip to Hawksmoor Castle. The castle is about 700 years old and stands on a hill above the river Leam. We left school at eight o'clock, and the bus journey took an hour and a half. My friend Kit and I sat at the back and played a word game.
- 2 When we arrived, a guide was waiting for us at the gate. She was wearing a long brown dress and she was carrying a basket. "I'm Agnes, the castle cook," she said. Of course she wasn't really a cook from the past – her real name is Mrs Adebayo – but she told us a lot about life in the castle.
- 3 First we visited the great hall. It is bigger than our school gym! Then we went down to the kitchen. In the past, the cooks made bread for two hundred people there every day. Mrs Adebayo showed us a huge pot. Four children could easily sit in it.
- 4 The most exciting part was the north tower. While we were climbing the narrow stairs, Kit suddenly stopped. He was looking at a small wooden door in the wall. "Where does it go?" he asked. Mrs Adebayo smiled. "That's the old secret way to the river," she said. "But nobody has used it for a hundred years."
- 5 At lunchtime we had our sandwiches in the castle garden. Then we went to the gift shop. I bought a postcard for my grandma, and Kit bought a toy sword. On the way home most of us were very quiet because we were tired.
- 6 I think it was the best school trip ever. Next time I'm going to bring my camera, because I want to take photos from the top of the tower. (Noah, 11)

11 Write a text for your class blog: "A place I would like to visit on a school trip".

Say where the place is, what you can see or do there and why you want to go. Say what you are going to take with you. Write at least six sentences.

Example answer:

I would like to visit the Sea Life Centre in Brighton. It is next to the beach and it is about two hours from our school by bus. There you can see sharks, turtles and thousands of colourful fish. You can also watch the divers when they feed the animals. I want to go there because I love animals and the sea. I'm going to take my camera and some money for the gift shop. I think it would be the best trip ever!

Expected: a short blog text with all four points (where, what you can see/do, why, what you are going to take); at least six sentences; mostly correct present tense, "can", "want to", "going to"; linking words (and, because, also). Content is free.
