

Test 2

1. Complete the sentences and translate them.

- a) I see a horse _____ the picture.
- b) The supermarket is _____ the right.
- c) The boy is standing _____ the two snowmen.
- d) My sister's birthday is _____ the 7th of April.

2. Now be careful with since and for! Fill in the gaps!

- a) I haven't been on holiday _____ two years.
- b) Sheila has been learning _____ two hours.
- c) David has been watching TV _____ hours.
- d) She has been baking cookies _____ 9 a.m.

3. Translate the if-clause in English.

- a) (Wenn Amy Zeit hat), we will practise English.
- b) (Wenn du müde bist), you can go to bed
- c) (Wenn David einen Brief schreibt), Amy will be happy.

4. Dictation

Christmas is celebrated in many different ways around the world.

In Great Britain for example, the Christmas Day is on the 25th December.

Santa Claus and his reindeer come at night.

The children unwrap their presents and can play with them for hours.

Later on in the day they eat a typical Christmas dinner, with a big turkey, potatoes, vegetables and last but not least Christmas pudding.

5.

Now write a little text, whether you like Christmas how it is celebrated in Great Britain.

Or maybe you prefer Christmas how it is celebrated in Germany.

~ Good Luck ~

Test 2 - Solutions

1.

- a) I see a horse in the picture.
Ich sehe ein Pferd auf dem Bild.
- b) The supermarket is on the right.
Der Supermarkt ist auf der rechten Seite.
- c) The boy is standing between the two snowmen.
Der Junge steht zwischen den zwei Schneemännern.
- d) My sister's birthday is on the 7th of April.
Meine Schwester hat am 7. April Geburtstag.

2.

- a) I haven't been on holiday for two years.
- b) Sheila has been learning for two hours.
- c) David has been watching TV for hours.
- d) She has been baking cookies since 9 a.m.

3.

- a) If Amy has time, we will practise English.
- b) If you are tired, you can go to bed
- c) If David writes a letter, Amy will be happy.

4. Dictation

Christmas is celebrated in many different ways around the world.

In Great Britain for example, the Christmas Day is on the 25th December.

Santa Claus and his reindeer come at night.

The children unwrap their presents and can play with them for hours.

Later on in the day they eat a typical Christmas dinner, with a big turkey, potatoes, vegetables and last but not least Christmas pudding.

5.

For example:

- I like how Christmas is celebrated in Great Britain, because.....
- I like how Christmas is celebrated in Germany, because.....
- I think it's better that we get our presents on Christmas Eve.
- Also I prefer our Christmas dinner, because.....
- I wouldn't like it, that Santa comes at night, because I want to see him.
- Santa Claus is a part of Christmas Eve.
- We also eat dinner on the 25th of December.